The first part of the book is a history of the city of London from the time of the Romans to the present. It is written in a very plain and simple style, and is intended for the use of the general reader.

The second part of the book is a description of the city of London, and of the various parts of it. It contains a great deal of interesting information concerning the city, and is written in a very clear and concise style.

The third part of the
various parts of the city, and of the different streets and squares. It
clear and concise style.
