

A circular metal seal, possibly a wax or lead seal, is affixed to a piece of aged, yellowed paper or parchment. The seal features a central emblem, which appears to be a coat of arms or a religious symbol, surrounded by a circular border. The paper is torn and discolored, suggesting it is an old document.

20. 1. 1743. Die zu dem
Herrn v. d. G. v. d. G. v. d. G.
v. d. G. v. d. G. v. d. G. v. d. G.
v. d. G. v. d. G. v. d. G. v. d. G.

Die zu dem
Herrn v. d. G. v. d. G. v. d. G.
v. d. G. v. d. G. v. d. G. v. d. G.

Von 322
1643 Juni 24. 1743

[illegible]